Employers' Advisers

Compensation Advisory Services

Employers' Advisers provide independent advice, assistance, representation and education to employers, potential employers and employer associations concerning workers' compensation issues under section 94 of the Workers Compensation Act.

In fulfilling this mandate, Employers' Advisers:

- Assist and advise employers, potential employers, and employer associations in understanding, working and complying with WorkSafeBC issues in Claims, Assessments and Prevention.
- Respond to inquiries about workers' compensation legislation, decisions, appeals and related matters in Claims, Assessments and Prevention.
- Prepare submissions on behalf of employers to WorkSafeBC, Review Division, Workers' Compensation Appeal Tribunal (WCAT) and assist employers in cases involving complex legal, medical or policy issues where there is merit.
- Conduct seminars and public speaking engagements on occupational health and safety issues, prevention, claims management, assessments and appeals.
- Consult with WorkSafeBC officials to review and make recommendations to the Policy Department, Executive and Board of Directors.
- This service is available to all employers or potential employers free of charge.
